Judy,
To a real
sharp senior, I wish you lots of fun this year &
always, good luck in whatever
you try to do;
Mary

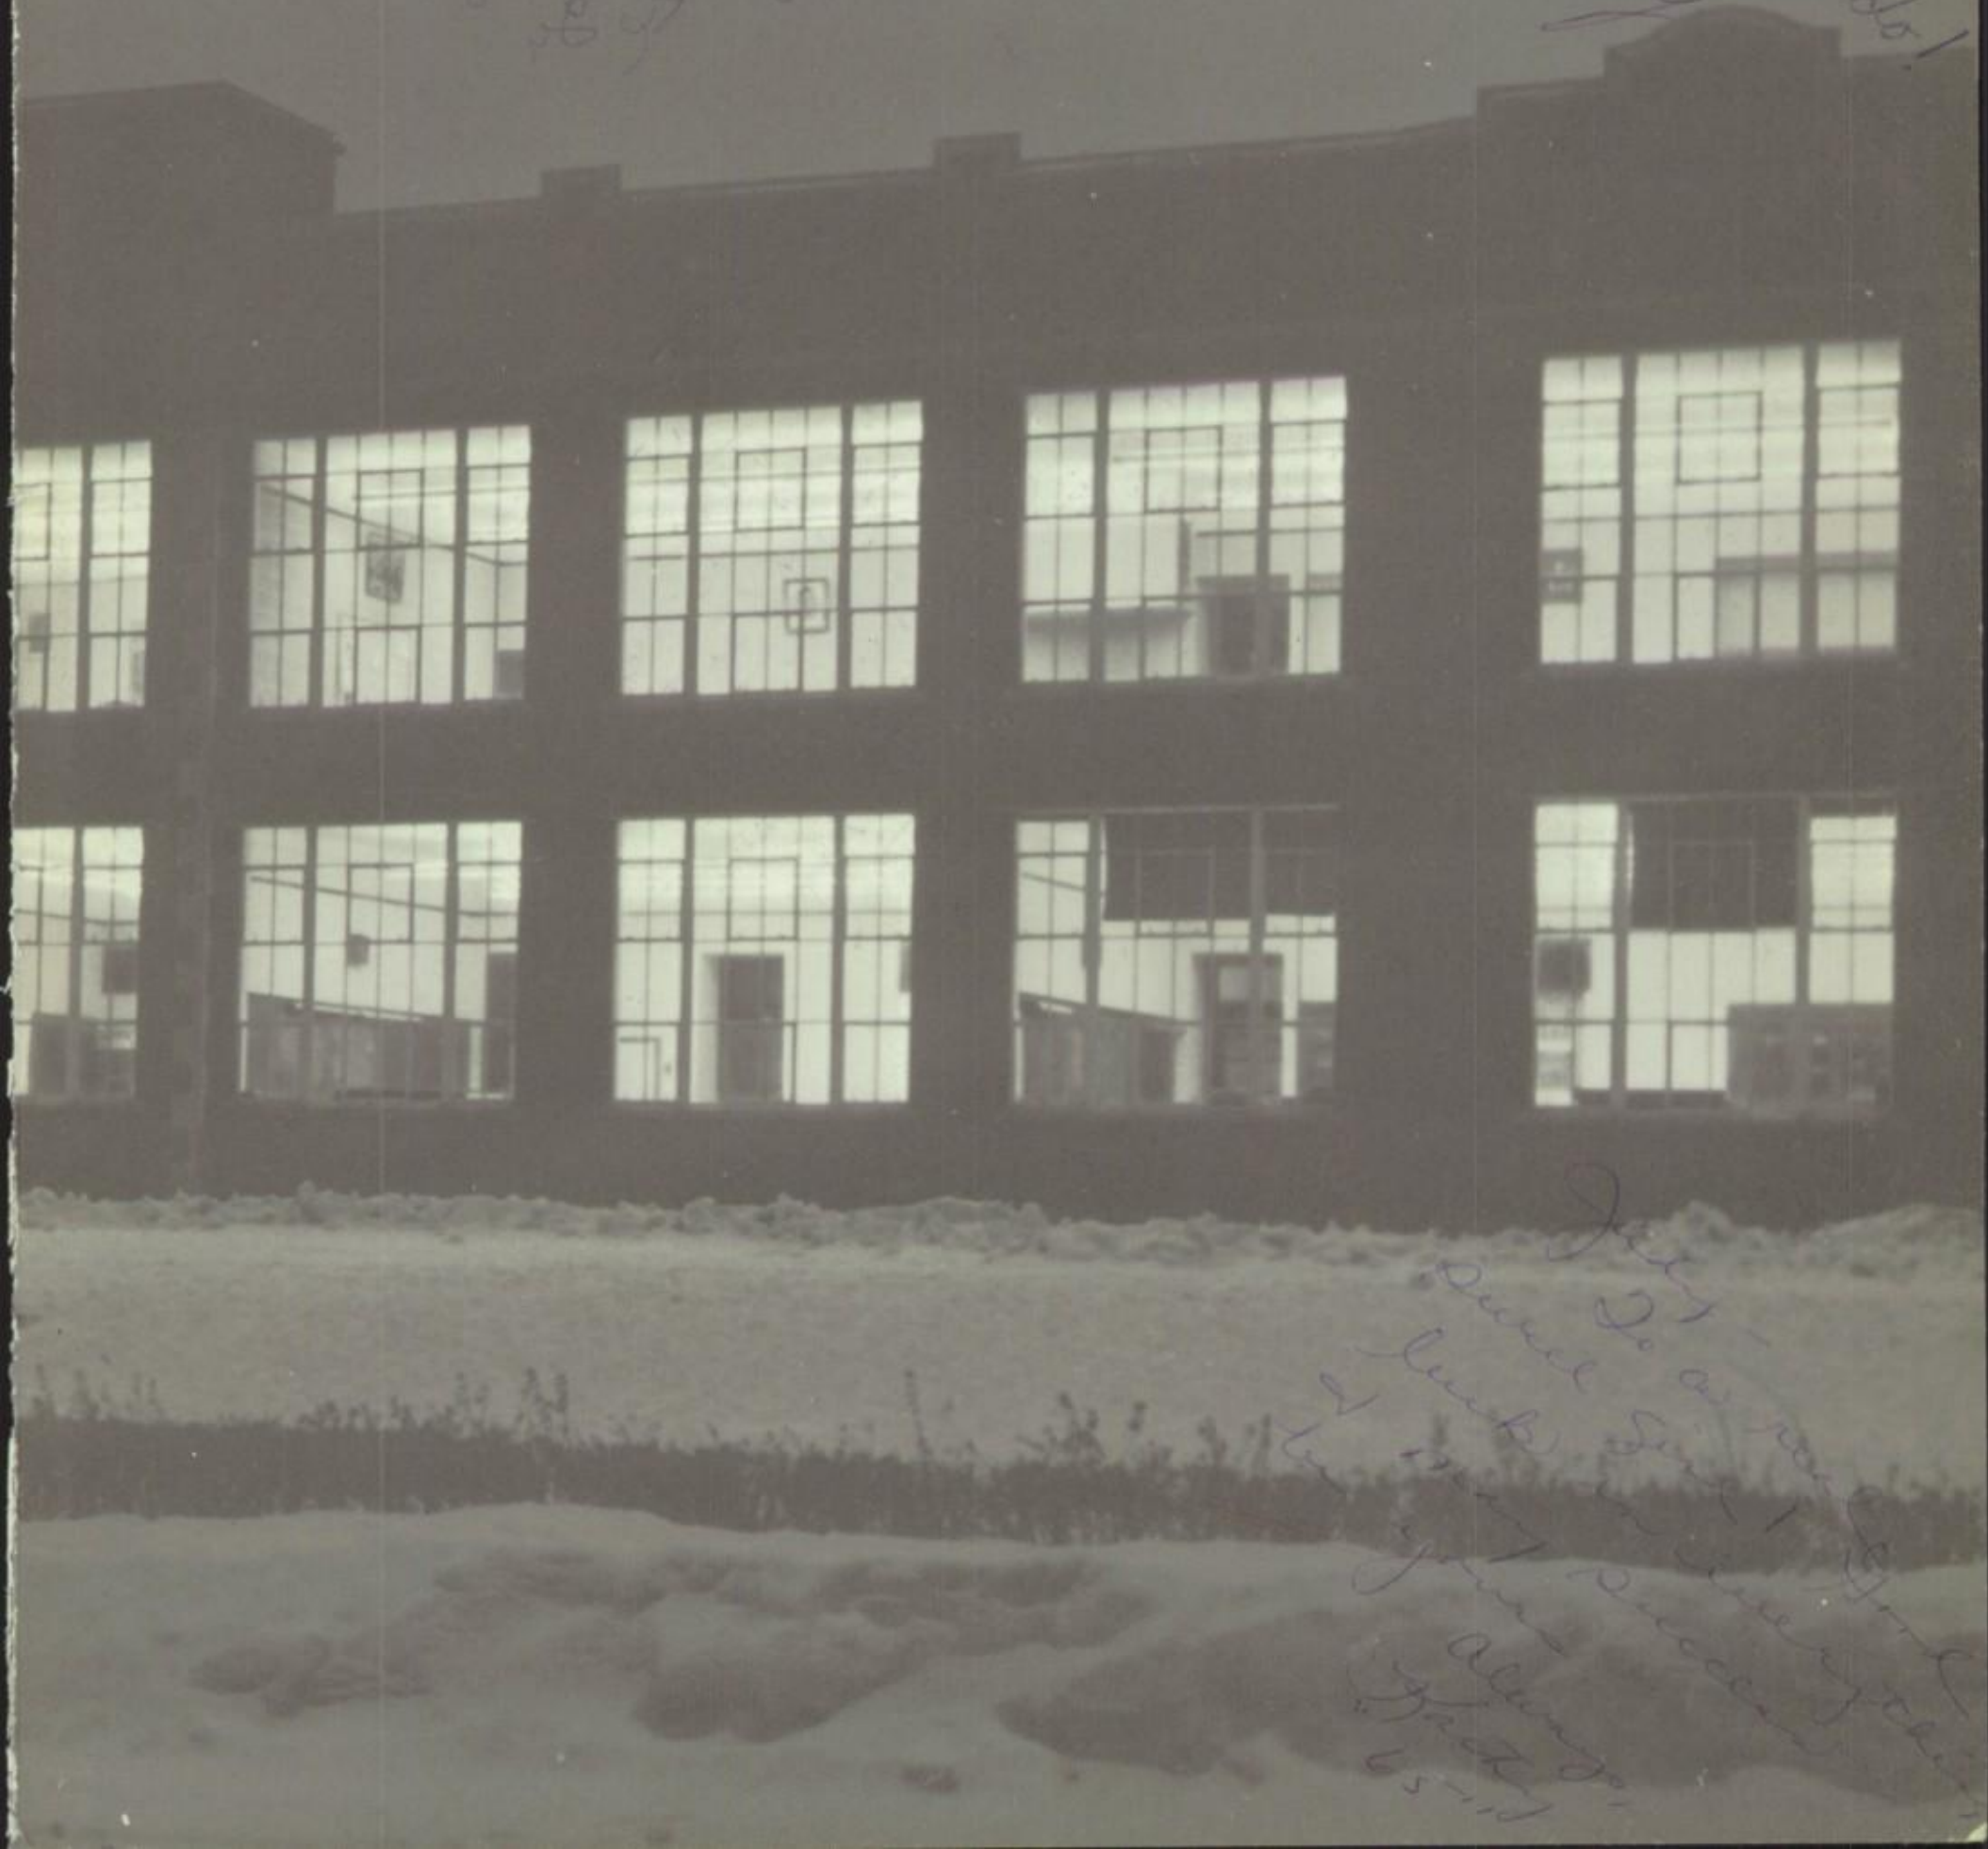

Judy,
To a real cute
girl. Best of luck
always in everything
you do.

Judy,
To a nice SENIOR (1976)
who continually talks. And luck in everything - especially those wonderful creatures - Boys
Leslie

Judy's one of my best friends. Never forget all the various things we've done in the past. I hope in our senior year. Good luck
 always in anything
 you attempt to do.
 God Bless You,
 a friend always,
 Claudette

I don't ~~forget~~ brag about the things I write, but here's what I have to say, that my principal doesn't approve of riding on that hay. Best of luck in whatever you do!

Students Dedicate 1963 Yearbook

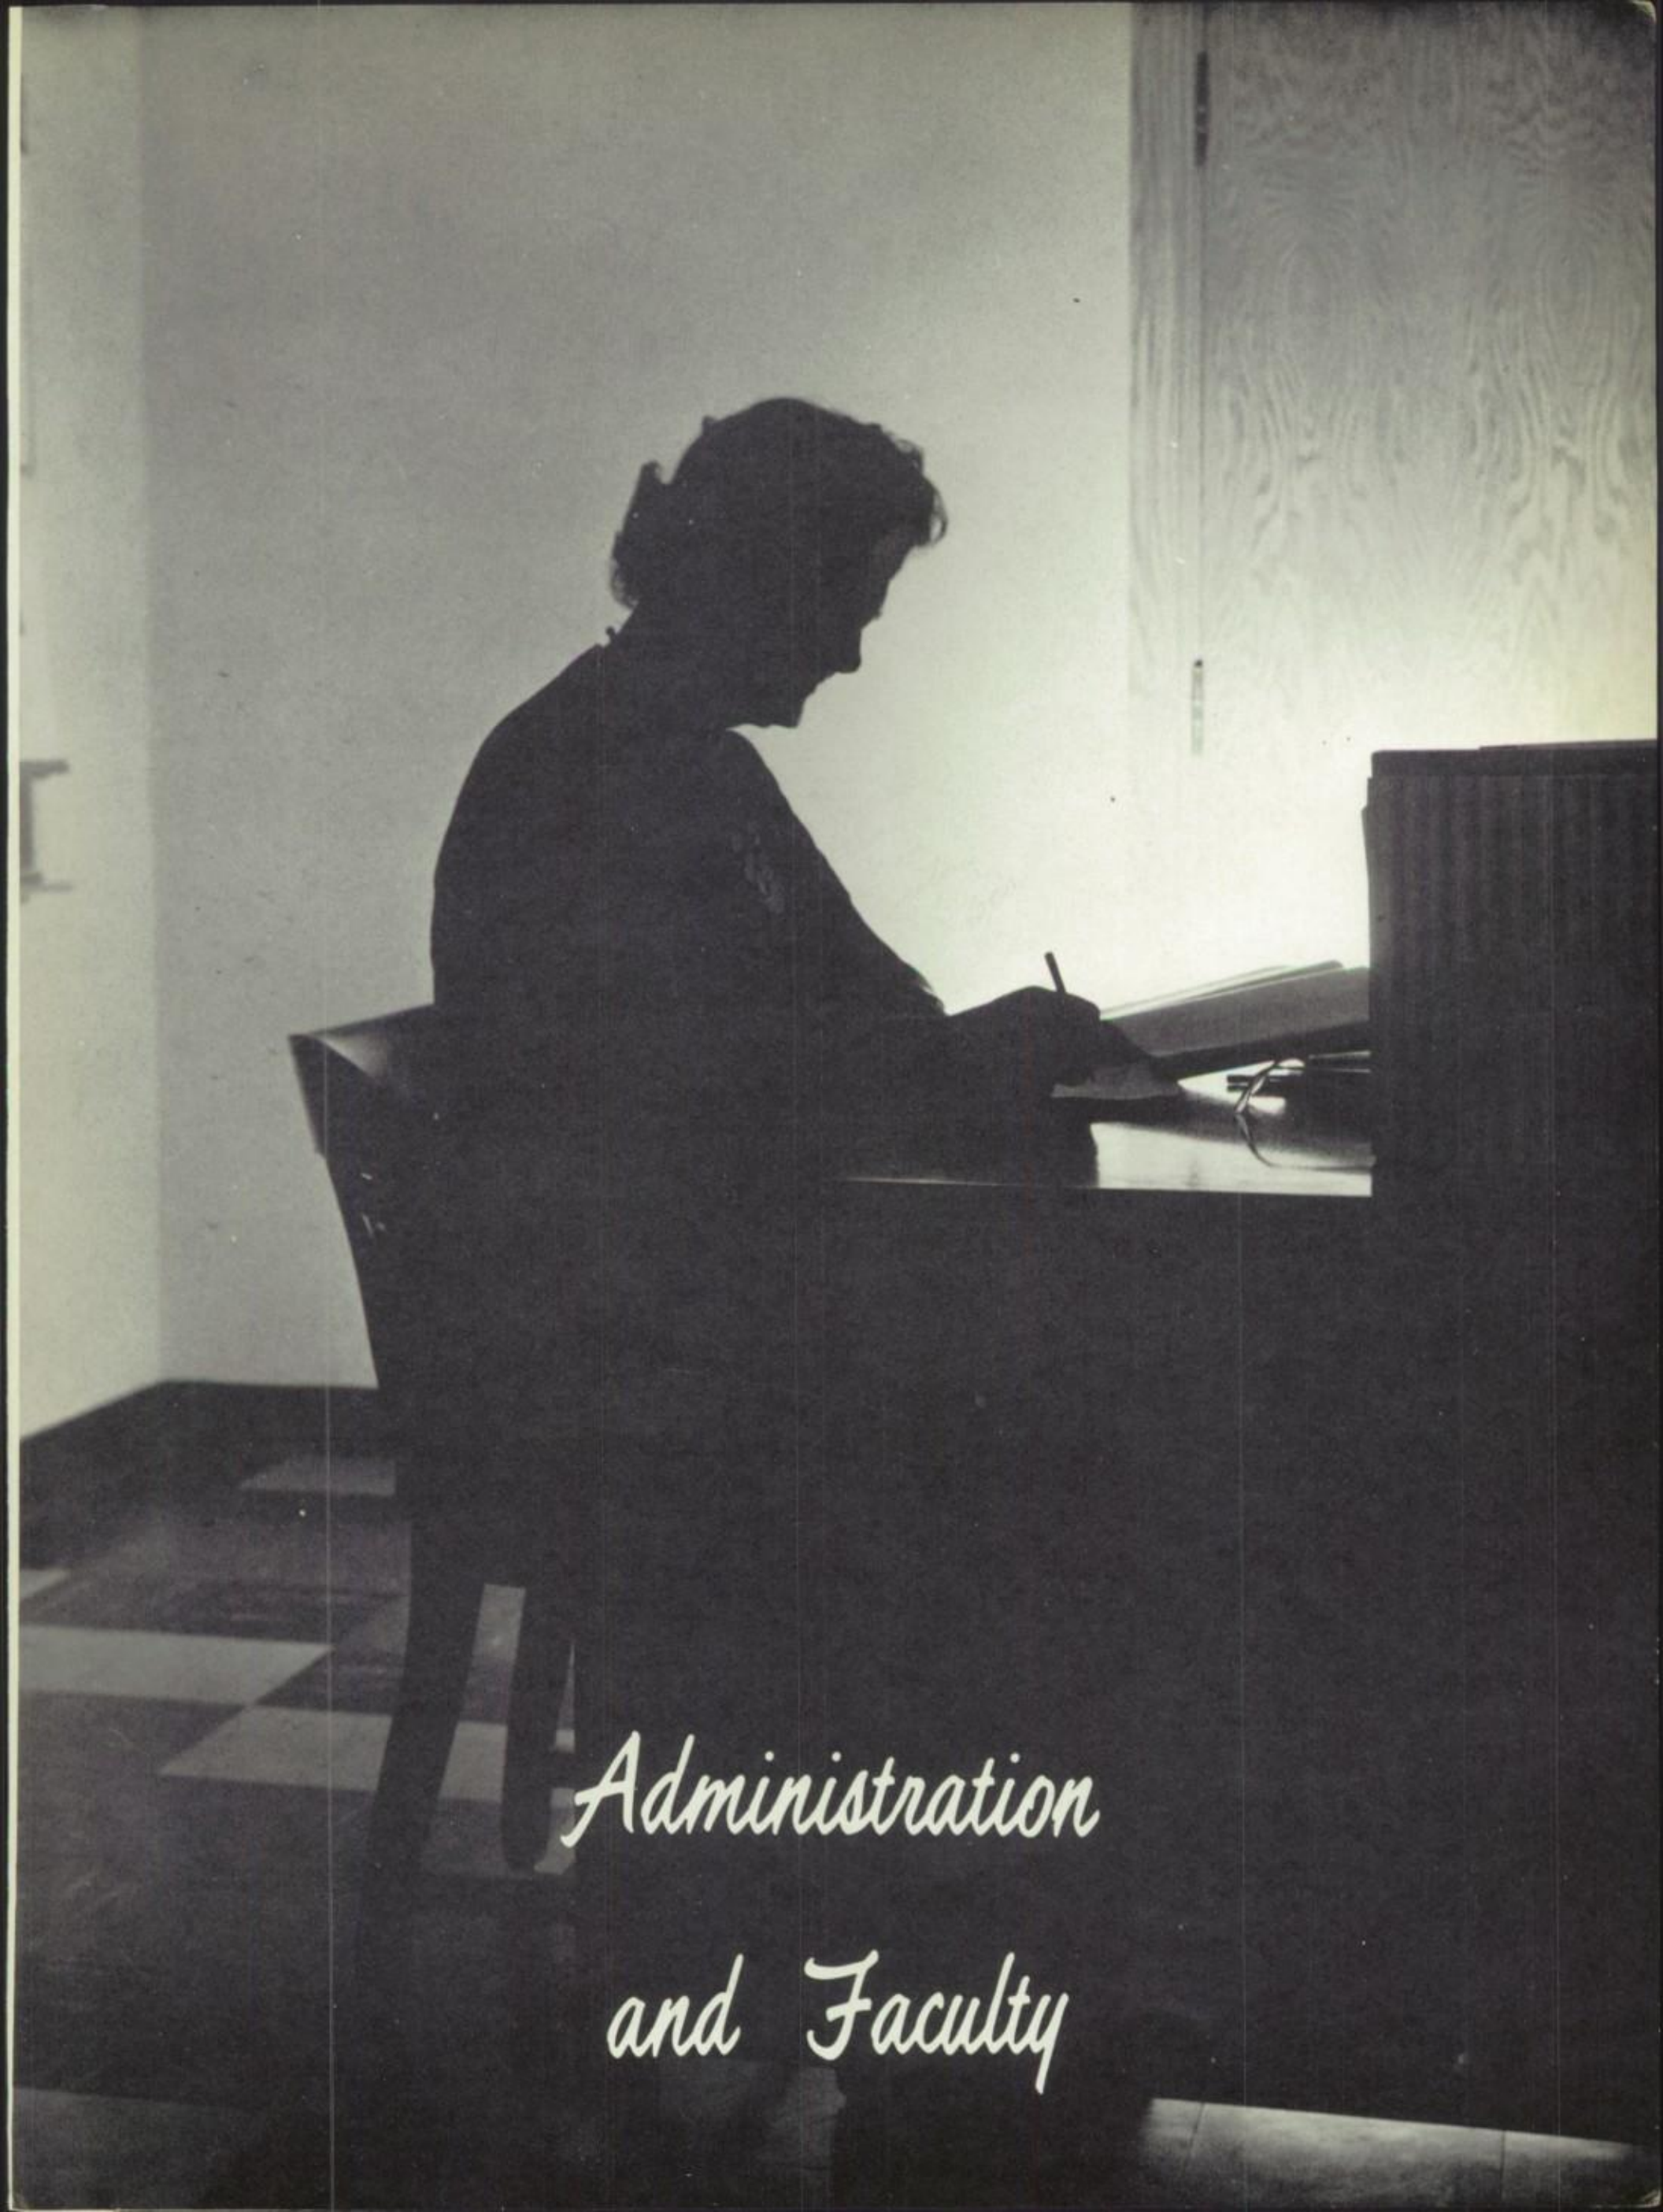

Mr. Paul Hargrove

This 1963 yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Paul Hargrove who passed away unexpectedly in 1961.

Leaving a job as principal at Gomer, Ohio, Mr. Hargrove came to Willard in the fall of 1935. He taught chemistry, physics, boys' physical education and coached basketball.

In 1943 Mr. Hargrove left Willard to become a lieutenant in the Navy. From 1943 until 1958, he served in the Navy with the exception of the years 1947 through 1951 in which he taught Algebra I and plane geometry in Willard High School. From 1958 until his recent death, he again taught at Willard High School.

Mrs. Hargrove and her son and daughter, Robert and Jane, have instituted a mathematics award in memory of their husband and father. Mr. Hargrove deeply appreciated anyone who excelled in his studies, especially in mathematics. This award is presented each year to a senior in Willard High School who has excelled in this subject.

On June 7, 1963, 127 seniors received their diplomas. This act ended their careers at WHS.

Entering as freshmen in 1960, this class, numbering 150, chose Ray Bouman, president; Gordon Shaw vice-president; Randell Adams secretary-treasurer; and Linda Hole, social chairman.

As sophomores in 1961, the class chose the following officers: Dave Link, president; Richard Stearns, vice-president; Rose Eberly, secretary-treasurer; and Jerry Wolfe, social chairman.

But, the big year was yet to come. In 1962, the junior class elected Gordon Shaw, president; Bill Rinehart, vice-president; Rose Eberly, secretary; Judy Brinker, treasurer; and Jean Holmes, social chairman. During this year the class sponsored various projects so that they might hold a Junior-Senior Prom. The class chose "Aqua Mirage" as the theme.

Electing Bill Rinehart, president; Bill Schodorf, vice-president; Jean Holmes, secretary-treasurer; and Roxanne Smith, social chairman, the class of 1963 started its final year at Willard. The class held the play "Freckles" and sponsored dances to raise money for the Senior-Junior Prom, "The Days of Wine and Roses."

As these students enter the adult world, they will always remember to keep their faces toward the sun and the shadows will fall behind.

Juniors Foresee Senior Year As Successful

In the year 1960, one hundred sixty-five students experienced an exciting new adventure. This was their freshman year. They elected as their officers John Langhurst, Don Dryer, Susan Herion and Don Snook.

In its second year at Willard High, this class chose Donn Lidington, George Lichoff, Britt Lofstrand and Danny Silcox as leaders.

To lead it in its all-important junior year, the class of '64 chose Ric Thompson, president; Donn Lidington, vice president; Mary Funk, secretary; Karen Burda, treasurer; and Danny Silcox, social chairman. The big event of the year was the planning of the Junior-Senior Prom. To raise money for this event, this class held a chili supper and sold fruit cakes.

In 1961 two hundred six students entered the halls of WHS. They elected as their freshman class officers: Refard Bolen, president; David Jump, vice-president; Dorothy Ruggles, secretary-treasurer; and Dianne Brubaker, social chairman.

For the 1962-1963 officers, this class, now sophomores, chose William Silcox, president; Ronald Moore, vice-president; Diane Gardner, secretary-treasurer; and Linda Winemiller, social chairman.

This class now looks forward to its junior year which will bring class rings, the junior play and the Jr.-Sr. Prom.

Freshmen Complete First Year At WHS

That wonderful year 1963 marked the beginning of their high school career for 169 freshmen. To lead them through the trials and tribulations of this first year at W.H.S., these students chose Thomas Veletean, president; Terry King, vice president; Debra Shields, secretary-treasurer; and Michael Cavello, social chairman.

Although the freshman year was a difficult one, this class will soon realize that it was well worth all the trouble.

In its fifth year at Willard High School, the National Honor Society initiated sixteen seniors in the fall and nine juniors in the spring into its membership.

Membership is based upon scholarship, service, friendship and character. In rating these last three qualities, the faculty uses objective methods of scoring.

To be eligible for membership, candidates must have spent at least two semesters at Willard High School and must be members of the sophomore, junior or senior class. They must have a scholarship average of 3 point or its equivalent. This scholastic level of achievement must remain fixed.

Judy,
you and your sister
have been the nicest, most wonderful "kids" that I have ever known. I will remember you always as my closest and most dearest friends.
Don't ever forget the fun that we've had together. We've walked down these halls for the last time together. I think that we shall cherish these moments
more than anything else in our lives.
Always,
Diane
